LBMW - BUSINESS CONTINUITY PLANS

We continue to monitor closely the unprecedented threat posed by the COVID-19 pandemic. As far as possible, we are taking every available step to minimise the potential impact the virus will have on our service delivery to our clients whilst, most importantly, safeguarding and protecting our staff and their families.

We have put in place business continuity plans which allow all our staff to work remotely, with minimal interruption to the service we provide to clients. All our secure IT systems, payment facilities and banking processes will remain unaffected and email and telephone numbers will continue to operate as normal. BUSINESS AS USUAL.

Please note: we are seeing increased activity from cyber criminals seeking to take advantage of the present financial and social uncertainties. We are increasing our security measures to protect our clients and their financial transactions. Be extra vigilant when sending any funds, especially in response to an email requests. Before transferring any funds to this firm please speak to the solicitor you are dealing with to verify the authenticity of the request and to confirm bank details.
